The City University of Hong Kong, in cooperation with the Italian Council of Architects, Planners, Landscapers and Conservationists (CNAPPC), are pleased to present the first exhibition of the most prestigious Italian Architecture Prize to be shown in Hong Kong.

This exhibition explores the most recent trends in contemporary Italian architecture, by displaying the inspiring works of distinguished Italian architects and studios, which were recently awarded the Italian Architect Prize and the Young Talent of Italian Architecture Prize.

This exhibition is promoted by the Italian Council of Architects, Planners, Landscapers and Conservationists (CNAPPC) and organized by City University Hong Kong and supported by the Italian Cultural Institute.
